

INTERIOR OF WRECKED DAY COACH. This was one of several cars of the Black Diamond Express, Lehigh Valley Railroad, which was wrecked at North Leroy, New York, following a crash with an automobile. P. & A.

FLAPPERS FLY DOWN NEW YORK BAY. Twenty-seven of New York's prettiest were passengers in the aeromarine from New York to Keyport, N. J. Kadel & Herbert.

MISS BLANCHE STREBEIGH, New York society girl, in athletic carnival at Mamaroneck, N. Y. Her mother is Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte.

KARL BLOOMINGDALE was caught by the camera as he made a healthy swing that connected with the sphere during the Poor Richard Club outing at the Philmont Country Club yesterday. P. C. Staples, new president of the club (right), talks golf with Harry P. Jordan.

MRS. RIDDLE DUKE, who was Cordelia Biddle, of Philadelphia, snapped while strolling along Park avenue, New York. U. & V.

HOME OF A BUSY PHILADELPHIA VOLUNTEER FIRE COMPANY. The etching shows how the Fairmount Volunteer Fire House looked in 1868. It is located on Ridge avenue above Vine street. In 1904 the tower was destroyed by fire and never rebuilt. The building, much renovated, is now used by the Goodwill Industries. Harry S. Parks, 450 North Tenth street, is the contributor. If you have an old-Philadelphia photograph, please send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

JUST ARRIVED IN WASHINGTON. Madame Frederick Nano, wife of the secretary of the Rumanian Legation. Underwood & Underwood.

SEEN ON ATLANTIC CITY'S WOODEN WAY. Miss Katherine Gilgore. The dog fitted in nicely with the color scheme. Atlantic City Photo.

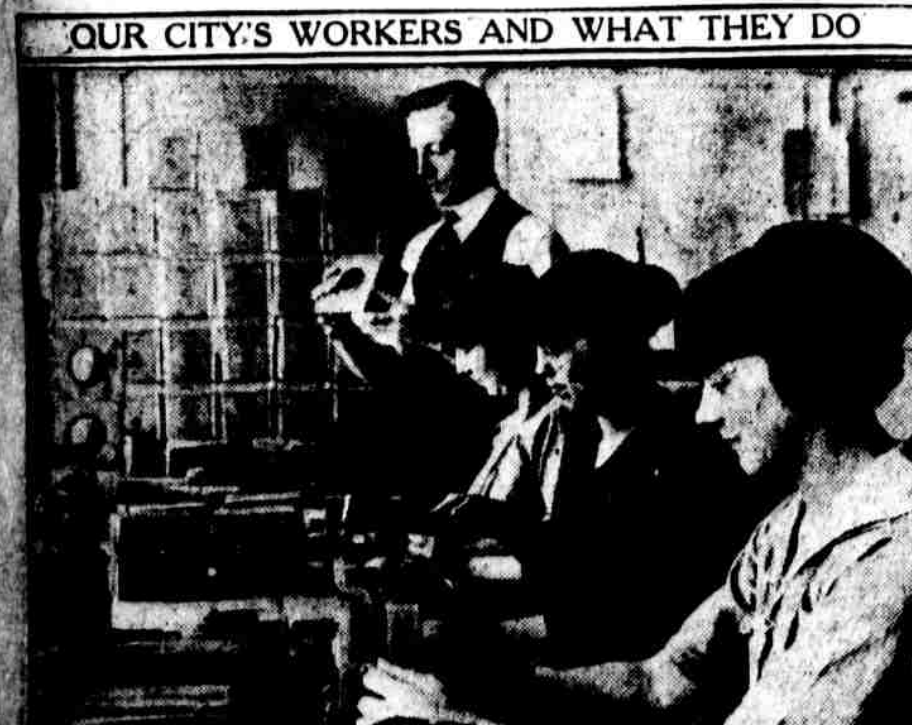

SELLING HANDIWORK TO AID RUSSIA. Miss Blanche Cloeren at the American Friends' Service headquarters, 20 South Twelfth street.

THEY BELIEVE IN SIGNS. Catharine E. Mather and her mother, Mrs. Victor C. Mather, busy during the hours of preparation for the annual dog and pony show, held on the Clothier estate at Wynnewood, today.

ARGENTINE POLO PLAYERS, PRACTICE IN ENGLAND. They are shown on the polo field at Sunbury, just before they met the English team at Hurlingham. Central News Photo.

CLARENCE WILSON, Miss Mary Stinger, Mrs. Edna Hood and Miss Edna Hood, inspecting variometers in the plant of the Electric Service Supplies Company, Seventeenth and Cambria streets.

LADY ASTOR RESTS. She was found in the garden of her old home, at Mirador, Va., as she played with the dog. U. & V.

HELPING THE KIDDIES. A rummage sale will be held all day Friday, at 1710 Market street, in aid of the Haddock Memorial Home for Infants. Miss Caroline Quig (left), chairman of the committee. At the right is Mrs. Arthur Cary Pierce, president of the home.

JAMES E. LE VAN, Highland Park, paying teller of the Federal Trust Company, Broad and Federal streets. He is married and has one child.